FULL BIO

Ann Schreiber is an accomplished freelance copywriter, blogger, and owner of Copywriting For You. She has been in the marketing and sales business for over 25 years and is passionate about business-focused writing.

She released her first book in 2024, Perseverance. Reinvention, which was rereleased in December 2024 by Fox Pointe Publishing, LLP. Her second book, The Top 10 Mistakes I Made My First Year as a Copywriter, was released by Fox Pointe Publishing, LLC, in March 2025. With this second book, she hopes to help aspiring copywriters and content writers hit the ground running.

Ann is also excited to announce the pending release of her debut fiction novel, Emily's Next Chapter, in May 2025.

Like many writers, Ann began her writing career very young. During recess in elementary school, she would pen short stories in her notebook. When her family invested in their first personal computer in the mid-1980s, she taught herself to type and spent her free time writing fiction stories. Later, she held various positions with the Rosemount High School newspaper and served as editor-in-chief during her senior year. She then became the co-editor-in-chief of the student paper at Inver Hills Community College.

Ann received her bachelor's degree in English communications from the University of Minnesota and her master's degree in business communication from the University of St. Thomas. She has two adult children and remarried in February 2023. She is now blessed with a young stepdaughter as well.

When Ann isn't busy typing away on her laptop for her clients or for fun, she enjoys reading. Her favorite authors include Colleen Hoover, Jodi Picoult, and Kristin Hannah. Ann also enjoys spending time outdoors, working out on the Peloton, and taking her son's basset hound for daily walks.
